BACKGROUND

1. Securities and Exchange Board of India (SEBI) had received a reference from the Income Tax Department (ITD), containing certain findings in the matter of Murli Industries Limited (MIL/Company). The ITD had found certain documents in the office of MIL suggesting manipulation in the share price of MIL and that ten companies were holding substantial shares of MIL and further that the affairs of the aforesaid ten companies were being looked after by Mr Amit Raja CA, who happened to be auditor of those ten companies. In light of the aforesaid reference and documents received from the ITD regarding manipulation in the shares of MIL and the profit sharing arrangement between MIL and Mr. Sanjay Dangi, SEBI initiated a preliminary inquiry in the matter to find as to whether there was any concentration of shareholding of the Company among the ten entities
